In performing this review, all relevant medical records and documentation utilized to make the adverse determination, along with any documentation and written information submitted, was reviewed.

The independent review was performed by a matched peer with the treating doctor. This case was reviewed by a licensed Medical Doctor with a specialty and board certification in Orthopedic Surgery. The ___ health care professional has signed a certification statement stating that no known conflicts of interest exist between the reviewer and any of the treating doctors or providers or any of the doctors or providers who reviewed the case for a determination prior to the referral to ___ for independent review. In addition, the reviewer has certified that the review was performed without bias for or against any party to the dispute.

CLINICAL HISTORY

___ is a 47-year-old woman who sustained injury to her right shoulder on ___. She was given the diagnosis of impingement syndrome. This is supported by an MRI of her right shoulder. She was recommended to undergo arthroscopic subacromial decompression, distal clavicle resection by ___, but was denied for not having undergone enough physical therapy. The patient continued with physical therapy with no decrease of symptoms.

REQUESTED SERVICE

Right shoulder arthroscopy/subacromial decompression, distal clavicle resection is requested for this patient.

DECISION

The reviewer disagrees with the prior adverse determination.

BASIS FOR THE DECISION

___ has undergone adequate physical therapy for impingement syndrome, but has persistent symptoms. The reviewer finds that the proposed right shoulder arthroscopy/subacromial decompression/distal clavicle decompression is reasonable and necessary at this juncture. This decision is based on prudent orthopedic tenets with regards to impingement syndrome. There are numerous articles in orthopedic literature that support ___'s request for the above procedure given the patient's recalcitrant impingement syndrome despite prolonged therapy.

___ has performed an independent review solely to determine the medical necessity of the health services that are the subject of the review. ___ has made no determinations regarding benefits available under the injured employee's policy.

As an officer of ___, I certify that there is no known conflict between the reviewer, ___ and/or any officer/employee of the IRO with any person or entity that is a party to the dispute.

___ is forwarding by mail and, in the case of time sensitive matters by facsimile, a copy of this finding to the treating doctor, payor and/or URA, patient and the TWCC.
